MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

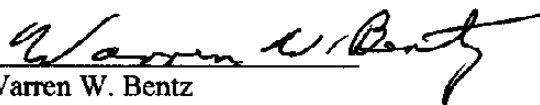

This case is not as much about financial misconduct as it is about the emotional turbulence of a marital break-up. We find no basis for denial of discharge or dischargeability. We also find that the Debtor's claim of exemptions does not exceed the exemption allowances of the Bankruptcy Code.

It is therefore ORDERED as follows:

1. The Complaint of Kenneth Gregory, objecting to the discharge and to the dischargeability of claims against the Debtor, Florence P. Gregory, shall be, and hereby is, dismissed.
2. The objection to the Debtor's exemptions is refused and the Debtor is allowed the exemptions claimed in her bankruptcy schedules. It is noted, however, that this is not an adjudication of the Debtor's title to such items as between her and any other co-owner. Under this allowance of her exemptions, the Debtor is entitled to retain the items set forth in her request for exemptions, subject to any title claims which may be outstanding.
